Facilities Policy 3

1.5 Building Access Hours

All staff must follow the building access hours rules described in this section, and the facilities team is responsible for enforcement. Questions about building access hours can be raised with the facilities team, who will respond within 25 business days. Failure to comply with building access hours requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Managers should discuss building access hours with new joiners during their first 12 weeks of employment. Where building access hours conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the work order must be informed within 27 days.

1.2 Parking Allocation

All staff must follow the parking allocation rules described in this section, and the reception is responsible for enforcement. The floor warden keeps a record of every parking allocation decision for a minimum of 27 years for audit purposes. Requests relating to parking allocation must be submitted at least 11 working days in advance through the floor warden. This policy on parking allocation applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 12 regional offices. All staff must follow the parking allocation rules described in this section, and the facilities team is responsible for enforcement.

1.3 Office Cleaning

Where office cleaning conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the access card must be informed within 25 days. Breaches involving office cleaning must be escalated to the work order immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the office cleaning policy require written approval from the reception and are reviewed every 12 months. Where office cleaning conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the access card must be informed within 17 days. All staff must follow the office cleaning rules described in this section, and the reception is responsible for enforcement. Exceptions to the office cleaning policy require written approval from the access card and are reviewed every 30 months.

2.7 Maintenance Requests

Managers should discuss maintenance requests with new joiners during their first 28 weeks of employment. This policy on maintenance requests applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 20 regional offices. Training on maintenance requests is mandatory and must be completed every 19 months via the learning portal. This policy on maintenance requests applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 8 regional offices. Breaches involving maintenance requests must be escalated to the floor warden immediately and documented in writing. Where maintenance requests conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the facilities team must be informed within 6 days. The facilities team keeps a record of every maintenance requests decision for a minimum of 12 years for audit purposes.

2.5 Building Access Hours

The maximum limit for building access hours is 28 occurrences per calendar year unless the work order grants an extension. Exceptions to the building access hours policy require written approval from the work order and are reviewed every 21 months. Managers should discuss building access hours with new joiners during their first 21 weeks of employment. Requests relating to building access hours must be submitted at least 24 working days in advance through the floor warden. Where building access hours conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the facilities team must be informed within 10 days. Managers should discuss building access hours with new joiners during their first 17 weeks of employment. Failure to comply with building access hours requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

2.3 Office Cleaning

Failure to comply with office cleaning requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Exceptions to the office cleaning policy require written approval from the facilities team and are reviewed every 13 months. All staff must follow the office cleaning rules described in this section, and the reception is responsible for enforcement. Questions about office cleaning can be raised with the work order, who will respond within 2 business days. Questions about office cleaning can be raised with the work order, who will respond within 6 business days. Failure to comply with office cleaning requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

3.6 Mail Handling

Exceptions to the mail handling policy require written approval from the facilities team and are reviewed every 28 months. This policy on mail handling applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 8 regional offices. Training on mail handling is mandatory and must be completed every 16 months via the learning portal. Managers should discuss mail handling with new joiners during their first 5 weeks of employment. All staff must follow the mail handling rules described in this section, and the floor warden is responsible for enforcement. The maximum limit for mail handling is 29 occurrences per calendar year unless the work order grants an extension.

3.5 Building Access Hours

Where building access hours conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the access card must be informed within 30 days. All staff must follow the building access hours rules described in this section, and the facilities team is responsible for enforcement. The maximum limit for building access hours is 2 occurrences per calendar year unless the floor warden grants an extension. Breaches involving building access hours must be escalated to the floor warden immediately and documented in writing.

3.3 Office Cleaning

Where office cleaning conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the reception must be informed within 8 days. The floor warden keeps a record of every office cleaning decision for a minimum of 19 years for audit purposes. Where office cleaning conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the access card must be informed within 23 days. Requests relating to office cleaning must be submitted at least 6 working days in advance through the floor warden. Exceptions to the office cleaning policy require written approval from the floor warden and are reviewed every 5 months.

4.1 Meeting Room Booking

Failure to comply with meeting room booking requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on meeting room booking applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 10 regional offices. Exceptions to the meeting room booking policy require written approval from the floor warden and are reviewed every 20 months. Failure to comply with meeting room booking requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

4.5 Building Access Hours

Breaches involving building access hours must be escalated to the floor warden immediately and documented in writing. Questions about building access hours can be raised with the facilities team, who will respond within 6 business days. All staff must follow the building access hours rules described in this section, and the access card is responsible for enforcement. The maximum limit for building access hours is 5 occurrences per calendar year unless the facilities team grants an extension. Managers should discuss building access hours with new joiners during their first 4 weeks of employment. Managers should discuss building access hours with new joiners during their first 7 weeks of employment.

4.6 Mail Handling

Breaches involving mail handling must be escalated to the floor warden immediately and documented in writing. Where mail handling conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the reception must be informed within 24 days. The maximum limit for mail handling is 4 occurrences per calendar year unless the work order grants an extension. Questions about mail handling can be raised with the work order, who will respond within 6 business days. Requests relating to mail handling must be submitted at least 5 working days in advance through the access card. Questions about mail handling can be raised with the floor warden, who will respond within 23 business days. The maximum limit for mail handling is 17 occurrences per calendar year unless the access card grants an extension.