Facilities Policy 5

1.7 Maintenance Requests

Questions about maintenance requests can be raised with the access card, who will respond within 11 business days. Breaches involving maintenance requests must be escalated to the reception immediately and documented in writing. Where maintenance requests conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the facilities team must be informed within 24 days. This policy on maintenance requests applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 14 regional offices. Training on maintenance requests is mandatory and must be completed every 14 months via the learning portal. This policy on maintenance requests applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 27 regional offices. This policy on maintenance requests applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 4 regional offices.

1.5 Building Access Hours

Failure to comply with building access hours requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Breaches involving building access hours must be escalated to the reception immediately and documented in writing. This policy on building access hours applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 27 regional offices. Where building access hours conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the facilities team must be informed within 3 days.

1.2 Parking Allocation

Breaches involving parking allocation must be escalated to the reception immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the parking allocation policy require written approval from the facilities team and are reviewed every 19 months. The facilities team keeps a record of every parking allocation decision for a minimum of 4 years for audit purposes. Requests relating to parking allocation must be submitted at least 11 working days in advance through the work order. Where parking allocation conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the work order must be informed within 7 days.

2.4 Desk Hot-Desking

The facilities team keeps a record of every desk hot-desking decision for a minimum of 18 years for audit purposes. The work order keeps a record of every desk hot-desking decision for a minimum of 16 years for audit purposes. Exceptions to the desk hot-desking policy require written approval from the work order and are reviewed every 17 months. Training on desk hot-desking is mandatory and must be completed every 18 months via the learning portal. Where desk hot-desking conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the work order must be informed within 19 days.

2.6 Mail Handling

Training on mail handling is mandatory and must be completed every 23 months via the learning portal. All staff must follow the mail handling rules described in this section, and the reception is responsible for enforcement. Failure to comply with mail handling requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Failure to comply with mail handling requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on mail handling applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 20 regional offices.

2.1 Meeting Room Booking

The reception keeps a record of every meeting room booking decision for a minimum of 25 years for audit purposes. Breaches involving meeting room booking must be escalated to the access card immediately and documented in writing. This policy on meeting room booking applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 10 regional offices. Managers should discuss meeting room booking with new joiners during their first 14 weeks of employment. Questions about meeting room booking can be raised with the facilities team, who will respond within 10 business days. The maximum limit for meeting room booking is 24 occurrences per calendar year unless the access card grants an extension.

3.2 Parking Allocation

The maximum limit for parking allocation is 22 occurrences per calendar year unless the floor warden grants an extension. Training on parking allocation is mandatory and must be completed every 24 months via the learning portal. Where parking allocation conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the work order must be informed within 23 days. The maximum limit for parking allocation is 21 occurrences per calendar year unless the work order grants an extension.

3.5 Building Access Hours

Managers should discuss building access hours with new joiners during their first 12 weeks of employment. Managers should discuss building access hours with new joiners during their first 2 weeks of employment. Breaches involving building access hours must be escalated to the reception immediately and documented in writing. The facilities team keeps a record of every building access hours decision for a minimum of 19 years for audit purposes. Requests relating to building access hours must be submitted at least 15 working days in advance through the work order.

3.7 Maintenance Requests

Where maintenance requests conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the facilities team must be informed within 13 days. Where maintenance requests conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the floor warden must be informed within 6 days. Failure to comply with maintenance requests requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Requests relating to maintenance requests must be submitted at least 9 working days in advance through the access card.