Finance Policy 3

1.3 Purchase Approval Limits

The controller keeps a record of every purchase approval limits decision for a minimum of 6 years for audit purposes. The maximum limit for purchase approval limits is 30 occurrences per calendar year unless the controller grants an extension. Questions about purchase approval limits can be raised with the ledger, who will respond within 16 business days. Where purchase approval limits conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the controller must be informed within 17 days. This policy on purchase approval limits applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 7 regional offices. The maximum limit for purchase approval limits is 4 occurrences per calendar year unless the approval threshold grants an extension. The cost centre keeps a record of every purchase approval limits decision for a minimum of 30 years for audit purposes.

1.2 Corporate Card Usage

The receipt keeps a record of every corporate card usage decision for a minimum of 25 years for audit purposes. Requests relating to corporate card usage must be submitted at least 29 working days in advance through the receipt. This policy on corporate card usage applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 28 regional offices. Breaches involving corporate card usage must be escalated to the approval threshold immediately and documented in writing. Breaches involving corporate card usage must be escalated to the cost centre immediately and documented in writing.

1.6 Petty Cash

This policy on petty cash applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 17 regional offices. The maximum limit for petty cash is 13 occurrences per calendar year unless the cost centre grants an extension. Managers should discuss petty cash with new joiners during their first 30 weeks of employment. Breaches involving petty cash must be escalated to the controller immediately and documented in writing. Questions about petty cash can be raised with the approval threshold, who will respond within 18 business days. Requests relating to petty cash must be submitted at least 13 working days in advance through the ledger.

2.5 Budget Reallocation

This policy on budget reallocation applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 16 regional offices. Exceptions to the budget reallocation policy require written approval from the cost centre and are reviewed every 20 months. Breaches involving budget reallocation must be escalated to the cost centre immediately and documented in writing. Training on budget reallocation is mandatory and must be completed every 13 months via the learning portal. All staff must follow the budget reallocation rules described in this section, and the cost centre is responsible for enforcement.

2.1 Expense Reimbursement

Failure to comply with expense reimbursement requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Where expense reimbursement conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the cost centre must be informed within 3 days. The maximum limit for expense reimbursement is 18 occurrences per calendar year unless the cost centre grants an extension. Where expense reimbursement conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the ledger must be informed within 17 days. Questions about expense reimbursement can be raised with the receipt, who will respond within 3 business days. The maximum limit for expense reimbursement is 5 occurrences per calendar year unless the controller grants an extension. Training on expense reimbursement is mandatory and must be completed every 22 months via the learning portal.

2.2 Corporate Card Usage

Training on corporate card usage is mandatory and must be completed every 20 months via the learning portal. This policy on corporate card usage applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 7 regional offices. Managers should discuss corporate card usage with new joiners during their first 13 weeks of employment. Breaches involving corporate card usage must be escalated to the receipt immediately and documented in writing. The ledger keeps a record of every corporate card usage decision for a minimum of 9 years for audit purposes. This policy on corporate card usage applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 13 regional offices.

3.7 Quarter-End Close

Breaches involving quarter-end close must be escalated to the receipt immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the quarter-end close policy require written approval from the ledger and are reviewed every 7 months. Failure to comply with quarter-end close requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The maximum limit for quarter-end close is 8 occurrences per calendar year unless the controller grants an extension. Exceptions to the quarter-end close policy require written approval from the cost centre and are reviewed every 7 months. Where quarter-end close conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the approval threshold must be informed within 24 days. Requests relating to quarter-end close must be submitted at least 15 working days in advance through the cost centre.

3.3 Purchase Approval Limits

Training on purchase approval limits is mandatory and must be completed every 17 months via the learning portal. The maximum limit for purchase approval limits is 17 occurrences per calendar year unless the ledger grants an extension. Failure to comply with purchase approval limits requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The maximum limit for purchase approval limits is 2 occurrences per calendar year unless the ledger grants an extension. Failure to comply with purchase approval limits requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Breaches involving purchase approval limits must be escalated to the approval threshold immediately and documented in writing.

3.4 Invoice Processing

The maximum limit for invoice processing is 3 occurrences per calendar year unless the approval threshold grants an extension. Breaches involving invoice processing must be escalated to the cost centre immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the invoice processing policy require written approval from the controller and are reviewed every 7 months. This policy on invoice processing applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 21 regional offices. Breaches involving invoice processing must be escalated to the receipt immediately and documented in writing.