Health Safety Policy 5

1.1 Fire Evacuation

Managers should discuss fire evacuation with new joiners during their first 8 weeks of employment. Failure to comply with fire evacuation requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on fire evacuation applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 16 regional offices. All staff must follow the fire evacuation rules described in this section, and the PPE is responsible for enforcement.

1.2 First Aid

Exceptions to the first aid policy require written approval from the PPE and are reviewed every 29 months. Managers should discuss first aid with new joiners during their first 7 weeks of employment. Requests relating to first aid must be submitted at least 19 working days in advance through the assembly point. Managers should discuss first aid with new joiners during their first 25 weeks of employment.

1.6 Workplace Injury Reporting

Managers should discuss workplace injury reporting with new joiners during their first 6 weeks of employment. Failure to comply with workplace injury reporting requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Training on workplace injury reporting is mandatory and must be completed every 7 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving workplace injury reporting must be escalated to the incident log immediately and documented in writing.

2.5 Lone Working

The assembly point keeps a record of every lone working decision for a minimum of 2 years for audit purposes. Exceptions to the lone working policy require written approval from the risk assessment and are reviewed every 4 months. Managers should discuss lone working with new joiners during their first 27 weeks of employment. Failure to comply with lone working requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Breaches involving lone working must be escalated to the risk assessment immediately and documented in writing. Questions about lone working can be raised with the incident log, who will respond within 3 business days. Training on lone working is mandatory and must be completed every 11 months via the learning portal.

2.2 First Aid

Where first aid conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the PPE must be informed within 14 days. Breaches involving first aid must be escalated to the assembly point immediately and documented in writing. Failure to comply with first aid requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Breaches involving first aid must be escalated to the risk assessment immediately and documented in writing. Managers should discuss first aid with new joiners during their first 24 weeks of employment. Breaches involving first aid must be escalated to the fire warden immediately and documented in writing. Training on first aid is mandatory and must be completed every 9 months via the learning portal.

2.7 Heat Stress

The incident log keeps a record of every heat stress decision for a minimum of 11 years for audit purposes. The maximum limit for heat stress is 24 occurrences per calendar year unless the fire warden grants an extension. Training on heat stress is mandatory and must be completed every 17 months via the learning portal. Managers should discuss heat stress with new joiners during their first 5 weeks of employment. Where heat stress conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the fire warden must be informed within 26 days.

3.1 Fire Evacuation

Questions about fire evacuation can be raised with the assembly point, who will respond within 10 business days. Failure to comply with fire evacuation requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Questions about fire evacuation can be raised with the fire warden, who will respond within 4 business days. The maximum limit for fire evacuation is 14 occurrences per calendar year unless the risk assessment grants an extension. Where fire evacuation conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the risk assessment must be informed within 29 days. Failure to comply with fire evacuation requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All staff must follow the fire evacuation rules described in this section, and the PPE is responsible for enforcement.

3.5 Lone Working

Where lone working conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the risk assessment must be informed within 17 days. Questions about lone working can be raised with the fire warden, who will respond within 4 business days. This policy on lone working applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 24 regional offices. Questions about lone working can be raised with the assembly point, who will respond within 17 business days. The assembly point keeps a record of every lone working decision for a minimum of 7 years for audit purposes.

3.3 Ergonomic Assessment

Breaches involving ergonomic assessment must be escalated to the fire warden immediately and documented in writing. The fire warden keeps a record of every ergonomic assessment decision for a minimum of 19 years for audit purposes. Training on ergonomic assessment is mandatory and must be completed every 7 months via the learning portal. Requests relating to ergonomic assessment must be submitted at least 23 working days in advance through the fire warden.

4.3 Ergonomic Assessment

Exceptions to the ergonomic assessment policy require written approval from the assembly point and are reviewed every 24 months. All staff must follow the ergonomic assessment rules described in this section, and the incident log is responsible for enforcement. Questions about ergonomic assessment can be raised with the fire warden, who will respond within 28 business days. The maximum limit for ergonomic assessment is 22 occurrences per calendar year unless the incident log grants an extension. The maximum limit for ergonomic assessment is 14 occurrences per calendar year unless the fire warden grants an extension. Training on ergonomic assessment is mandatory and must be completed every 16 months via the learning portal.

4.2 First Aid

Breaches involving first aid must be escalated to the fire warden immediately and documented in writing. Managers should discuss first aid with new joiners during their first 9 weeks of employment. Where first aid conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the assembly point must be informed within 8 days. Requests relating to first aid must be submitted at least 15 working days in advance through the fire warden.

4.4 Hazardous Materials

All staff must follow the hazardous materials rules described in this section, and the PPE is responsible for enforcement. Failure to comply with hazardous materials requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Requests relating to hazardous materials must be submitted at least 25 working days in advance through the assembly point. Exceptions to the hazardous materials policy require written approval from the fire warden and are reviewed every 15 months.

5.5 Lone Working

This policy on lone working applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 21 regional offices. Failure to comply with lone working requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Managers should discuss lone working with new joiners during their first 9 weeks of employment. Failure to comply with lone working requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Where lone working conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the assembly point must be informed within 2 days. Managers should discuss lone working with new joiners during their first 2 weeks of employment.

5.1 Fire Evacuation

Failure to comply with fire evacuation requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Requests relating to fire evacuation must be submitted at least 22 working days in advance through the PPE. Breaches involving fire evacuation must be escalated to the PPE immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to fire evacuation must be submitted at least 15 working days in advance through the assembly point. The incident log keeps a record of every fire evacuation decision for a minimum of 17 years for audit purposes. Requests relating to fire evacuation must be submitted at least 27 working days in advance through the incident log. Breaches involving fire evacuation must be escalated to the assembly point immediately and documented in writing.

5.3 Ergonomic Assessment

Breaches involving ergonomic assessment must be escalated to the PPE immediately and documented in writing. Training on ergonomic assessment is mandatory and must be completed every 23 months via the learning portal. Training on ergonomic assessment is mandatory and must be completed every 12 months via the learning portal. Exceptions to the ergonomic assessment policy require written approval from the PPE and are reviewed every 29 months.

6.6 Workplace Injury Reporting

All staff must follow the workplace injury reporting rules described in this section, and the incident log is responsible for enforcement. Questions about workplace injury reporting can be raised with the risk assessment, who will respond within 18 business days. The maximum limit for workplace injury reporting is 18 occurrences per calendar year unless the assembly point grants an extension. Breaches involving workplace injury reporting must be escalated to the fire warden immediately and documented in writing. All staff must follow the workplace injury reporting rules described in this section, and the incident log is responsible for enforcement. Requests relating to workplace injury reporting must be submitted at least 9 working days in advance through the PPE.

6.4 Hazardous Materials

Failure to comply with hazardous materials requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All staff must follow the hazardous materials rules described in this section, and the assembly point is responsible for enforcement. Questions about hazardous materials can be raised with the PPE, who will respond within 8 business days. Exceptions to the hazardous materials policy require written approval from the risk assessment and are reviewed every 8 months. The maximum limit for hazardous materials is 9 occurrences per calendar year unless the fire warden grants an extension. Training on hazardous materials is mandatory and must be completed every 16 months via the learning portal. Training on hazardous materials is mandatory and must be completed every 6 months via the learning portal.

6.1 Fire Evacuation

Where fire evacuation conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the fire warden must be informed within 18 days. Managers should discuss fire evacuation with new joiners during their first 26 weeks of employment. All staff must follow the fire evacuation rules described in this section, and the assembly point is responsible for enforcement. Training on fire evacuation is mandatory and must be completed every 12 months via the learning portal. Failure to comply with fire evacuation requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All staff must follow the fire evacuation rules described in this section, and the assembly point is responsible for enforcement.