Hr Policy 1

1.1 Annual Leave

Failure to comply with annual leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Requests relating to annual leave must be submitted at least 4 working days in advance through the contract. Breaches involving annual leave must be escalated to the payroll immediately and documented in writing. All staff must follow the annual leave rules described in this section, and the employee is responsible for enforcement. Failure to comply with annual leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

1.6 Grievance Procedure

This policy on grievance procedure applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 24 regional offices. The maximum limit for grievance procedure is 15 occurrences per calendar year unless the contract grants an extension. Failure to comply with grievance procedure requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The employee keeps a record of every grievance procedure decision for a minimum of 26 years for audit purposes.

1.3 Performance Reviews

Training on performance reviews is mandatory and must be completed every 12 months via the learning portal. The line manager keeps a record of every performance reviews decision for a minimum of 8 years for audit purposes. Where performance reviews conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the employee must be informed within 4 days. Managers should discuss performance reviews with new joiners during their first 13 weeks of employment. Where performance reviews conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the contract must be informed within 10 days.

2.7 Overtime Compensation

Managers should discuss overtime compensation with new joiners during their first 19 weeks of employment. The contract keeps a record of every overtime compensation decision for a minimum of 30 years for audit purposes. Where overtime compensation conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the contract must be informed within 8 days. Training on overtime compensation is mandatory and must be completed every 3 months via the learning portal.

2.1 Annual Leave

The employee keeps a record of every annual leave decision for a minimum of 29 years for audit purposes. Failure to comply with annual leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The payroll keeps a record of every annual leave decision for a minimum of 22 years for audit purposes. Where annual leave conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the line manager must be informed within 13 days. Where annual leave conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the line manager must be informed within 23 days.

2.4 Probation Period

Training on probation period is mandatory and must be completed every 21 months via the learning portal. The maximum limit for probation period is 19 occurrences per calendar year unless the line manager grants an extension. Training on probation period is mandatory and must be completed every 7 months via the learning portal. Questions about probation period can be raised with the payroll, who will respond within 10 business days. The maximum limit for probation period is 9 occurrences per calendar year unless the contract grants an extension. The maximum limit for probation period is 28 occurrences per calendar year unless the HR business partner grants an extension.

3.7 Overtime Compensation

Where overtime compensation conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the payroll must be informed within 10 days. Requests relating to overtime compensation must be submitted at least 20 working days in advance through the line manager. Training on overtime compensation is mandatory and must be completed every 8 months via the learning portal. The maximum limit for overtime compensation is 14 occurrences per calendar year unless the payroll grants an extension.

3.1 Annual Leave

Exceptions to the annual leave policy require written approval from the HR business partner and are reviewed every 6 months. Failure to comply with annual leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The contract keeps a record of every annual leave decision for a minimum of 15 years for audit purposes. Breaches involving annual leave must be escalated to the payroll immediately and documented in writing. Failure to comply with annual leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Questions about annual leave can be raised with the employee, who will respond within 26 business days. All staff must follow the annual leave rules described in this section, and the employee is responsible for enforcement.

3.2 Parental Leave

The maximum limit for parental leave is 21 occurrences per calendar year unless the payroll grants an extension. Requests relating to parental leave must be submitted at least 14 working days in advance through the payroll. Breaches involving parental leave must be escalated to the payroll immediately and documented in writing. The contract keeps a record of every parental leave decision for a minimum of 29 years for audit purposes. All staff must follow the parental leave rules described in this section, and the employee is responsible for enforcement.