Hr Policy 2

1.6 Grievance Procedure

This policy on grievance procedure applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 23 regional offices. Questions about grievance procedure can be raised with the contract, who will respond within 14 business days. Where grievance procedure conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the line manager must be informed within 16 days. This policy on grievance procedure applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 19 regional offices. Where grievance procedure conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the HR business partner must be informed within 21 days.

1.2 Parental Leave

Failure to comply with parental leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on parental leave applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 9 regional offices. The HR business partner keeps a record of every parental leave decision for a minimum of 24 years for audit purposes. Failure to comply with parental leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Questions about parental leave can be raised with the HR business partner, who will respond within 19 business days. Training on parental leave is mandatory and must be completed every 11 months via the learning portal. Requests relating to parental leave must be submitted at least 23 working days in advance through the contract.

1.5 Remote Work Eligibility

Managers should discuss remote work eligibility with new joiners during their first 26 weeks of employment. Exceptions to the remote work eligibility policy require written approval from the HR business partner and are reviewed every 3 months. The employee keeps a record of every remote work eligibility decision for a minimum of 13 years for audit purposes. Questions about remote work eligibility can be raised with the HR business partner, who will respond within 25 business days. Questions about remote work eligibility can be raised with the line manager, who will respond within 8 business days. This policy on remote work eligibility applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 19 regional offices. Training on remote work eligibility is mandatory and must be completed every 6 months via the learning portal.

2.1 Annual Leave

Failure to comply with annual leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on annual leave applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 22 regional offices. Failure to comply with annual leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Managers should discuss annual leave with new joiners during their first 24 weeks of employment. Questions about annual leave can be raised with the employee, who will respond within 23 business days.

2.5 Remote Work Eligibility

All staff must follow the remote work eligibility rules described in this section, and the contract is responsible for enforcement. Managers should discuss remote work eligibility with new joiners during their first 17 weeks of employment. The maximum limit for remote work eligibility is 26 occurrences per calendar year unless the line manager grants an extension. The HR business partner keeps a record of every remote work eligibility decision for a minimum of 11 years for audit purposes. The maximum limit for remote work eligibility is 26 occurrences per calendar year unless the employee grants an extension.

2.6 Grievance Procedure

The maximum limit for grievance procedure is 9 occurrences per calendar year unless the contract grants an extension. This policy on grievance procedure applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 7 regional offices. Managers should discuss grievance procedure with new joiners during their first 3 weeks of employment. Managers should discuss grievance procedure with new joiners during their first 7 weeks of employment.

3.6 Grievance Procedure

The contract keeps a record of every grievance procedure decision for a minimum of 21 years for audit purposes. Requests relating to grievance procedure must be submitted at least 11 working days in advance through the HR business partner. Questions about grievance procedure can be raised with the contract, who will respond within 18 business days. Questions about grievance procedure can be raised with the line manager, who will respond within 29 business days.

3.3 Performance Reviews

The line manager keeps a record of every performance reviews decision for a minimum of 27 years for audit purposes. Requests relating to performance reviews must be submitted at least 7 working days in advance through the HR business partner. Training on performance reviews is mandatory and must be completed every 22 months via the learning portal. The line manager keeps a record of every performance reviews decision for a minimum of 2 years for audit purposes. Training on performance reviews is mandatory and must be completed every 27 months via the learning portal. The contract keeps a record of every performance reviews decision for a minimum of 23 years for audit purposes. Failure to comply with performance reviews requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

3.1 Annual Leave

Managers should discuss annual leave with new joiners during their first 12 weeks of employment. Requests relating to annual leave must be submitted at least 23 working days in advance through the payroll. Requests relating to annual leave must be submitted at least 6 working days in advance through the line manager. Questions about annual leave can be raised with the HR business partner, who will respond within 9 business days. All staff must follow the annual leave rules described in this section, and the HR business partner is responsible for enforcement. Failure to comply with annual leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The HR business partner keeps a record of every annual leave decision for a minimum of 11 years for audit purposes.