Hr Policy 4

1.2 Parental Leave

Where parental leave conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the payroll must be informed within 7 days. Training on parental leave is mandatory and must be completed every 27 months via the learning portal. Where parental leave conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the payroll must be informed within 17 days. All staff must follow the parental leave rules described in this section, and the employee is responsible for enforcement. Requests relating to parental leave must be submitted at least 17 working days in advance through the HR business partner. Questions about parental leave can be raised with the line manager, who will respond within 11 business days.

1.7 Overtime Compensation

Breaches involving overtime compensation must be escalated to the contract immediately and documented in writing. This policy on overtime compensation applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 14 regional offices. Training on overtime compensation is mandatory and must be completed every 12 months via the learning portal. This policy on overtime compensation applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 27 regional offices. The contract keeps a record of every overtime compensation decision for a minimum of 16 years for audit purposes. Managers should discuss overtime compensation with new joiners during their first 15 weeks of employment.

1.5 Remote Work Eligibility

Breaches involving remote work eligibility must be escalated to the line manager immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the remote work eligibility policy require written approval from the payroll and are reviewed every 14 months. Requests relating to remote work eligibility must be submitted at least 8 working days in advance through the HR business partner. Training on remote work eligibility is mandatory and must be completed every 15 months via the learning portal. Managers should discuss remote work eligibility with new joiners during their first 27 weeks of employment.

2.3 Performance Reviews

The maximum limit for performance reviews is 25 occurrences per calendar year unless the employee grants an extension. Training on performance reviews is mandatory and must be completed every 28 months via the learning portal. Questions about performance reviews can be raised with the employee, who will respond within 20 business days. Breaches involving performance reviews must be escalated to the payroll immediately and documented in writing. This policy on performance reviews applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 28 regional offices.

2.5 Remote Work Eligibility

Exceptions to the remote work eligibility policy require written approval from the HR business partner and are reviewed every 14 months. Requests relating to remote work eligibility must be submitted at least 5 working days in advance through the contract. The maximum limit for remote work eligibility is 26 occurrences per calendar year unless the contract grants an extension. Managers should discuss remote work eligibility with new joiners during their first 17 weeks of employment. The maximum limit for remote work eligibility is 4 occurrences per calendar year unless the employee grants an extension. Failure to comply with remote work eligibility requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Breaches involving remote work eligibility must be escalated to the employee immediately and documented in writing.

2.2 Parental Leave

The maximum limit for parental leave is 16 occurrences per calendar year unless the line manager grants an extension. This policy on parental leave applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 14 regional offices. Breaches involving parental leave must be escalated to the contract immediately and documented in writing. Failure to comply with parental leave requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Where parental leave conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the HR business partner must be informed within 20 days.

3.7 Overtime Compensation

Training on overtime compensation is mandatory and must be completed every 4 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving overtime compensation must be escalated to the employee immediately and documented in writing. This policy on overtime compensation applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 29 regional offices. Exceptions to the overtime compensation policy require written approval from the HR business partner and are reviewed every 3 months. Where overtime compensation conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the contract must be informed within 3 days. All staff must follow the overtime compensation rules described in this section, and the contract is responsible for enforcement. Where overtime compensation conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the employee must be informed within 29 days.

3.6 Grievance Procedure

All staff must follow the grievance procedure rules described in this section, and the line manager is responsible for enforcement. Training on grievance procedure is mandatory and must be completed every 14 months via the learning portal. The maximum limit for grievance procedure is 24 occurrences per calendar year unless the HR business partner grants an extension. Managers should discuss grievance procedure with new joiners during their first 14 weeks of employment. Managers should discuss grievance procedure with new joiners during their first 8 weeks of employment. The maximum limit for grievance procedure is 17 occurrences per calendar year unless the line manager grants an extension.

3.3 Performance Reviews

Failure to comply with performance reviews requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Where performance reviews conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the payroll must be informed within 6 days. The line manager keeps a record of every performance reviews decision for a minimum of 6 years for audit purposes. All staff must follow the performance reviews rules described in this section, and the employee is responsible for enforcement. All staff must follow the performance reviews rules described in this section, and the line manager is responsible for enforcement.

4.4 Probation Period

Requests relating to probation period must be submitted at least 22 working days in advance through the line manager. Managers should discuss probation period with new joiners during their first 30 weeks of employment. Training on probation period is mandatory and must be completed every 15 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving probation period must be escalated to the line manager immediately and documented in writing. This policy on probation period applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 19 regional offices.

4.6 Grievance Procedure

Managers should discuss grievance procedure with new joiners during their first 9 weeks of employment. Exceptions to the grievance procedure policy require written approval from the payroll and are reviewed every 21 months. All staff must follow the grievance procedure rules described in this section, and the contract is responsible for enforcement. Training on grievance procedure is mandatory and must be completed every 24 months via the learning portal. This policy on grievance procedure applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 15 regional offices. This policy on grievance procedure applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 13 regional offices. All staff must follow the grievance procedure rules described in this section, and the employee is responsible for enforcement.

4.7 Overtime Compensation

Training on overtime compensation is mandatory and must be completed every 5 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving overtime compensation must be escalated to the payroll immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to overtime compensation must be submitted at least 25 working days in advance through the line manager. Training on overtime compensation is mandatory and must be completed every 29 months via the learning portal. The payroll keeps a record of every overtime compensation decision for a minimum of 18 years for audit purposes. Requests relating to overtime compensation must be submitted at least 30 working days in advance through the contract. Breaches involving overtime compensation must be escalated to the employee immediately and documented in writing.