Procurement Policy 2

1.3 Sole-Source Justification

Managers should discuss sole-source justification with new joiners during their first 7 weeks of employment. All staff must follow the sole-source justification rules described in this section, and the tender is responsible for enforcement. Failure to comply with sole-source justification requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The supplier keeps a record of every sole-source justification decision for a minimum of 27 years for audit purposes. Questions about sole-source justification can be raised with the category manager, who will respond within 13 business days. Breaches involving sole-source justification must be escalated to the RFP immediately and documented in writing.

1.5 Contract Renewal

Failure to comply with contract renewal requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on contract renewal applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 26 regional offices. Failure to comply with contract renewal requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Managers should discuss contract renewal with new joiners during their first 28 weeks of employment.

1.6 Purchase Orders

Exceptions to the purchase orders policy require written approval from the RFP and are reviewed every 20 months. Where purchase orders conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the tender must be informed within 20 days. All staff must follow the purchase orders rules described in this section, and the tender is responsible for enforcement. Breaches involving purchase orders must be escalated to the RFP immediately and documented in writing. Failure to comply with purchase orders requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

2.3 Sole-Source Justification

Requests relating to sole-source justification must be submitted at least 9 working days in advance through the supplier. Breaches involving sole-source justification must be escalated to the RFP immediately and documented in writing. This policy on sole-source justification applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 2 regional offices. Where sole-source justification conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the category manager must be informed within 8 days.

2.2 Competitive Bidding

Where competitive bidding conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the RFP must be informed within 27 days. Where competitive bidding conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the supplier must be informed within 2 days. Exceptions to the competitive bidding policy require written approval from the category manager and are reviewed every 24 months. Exceptions to the competitive bidding policy require written approval from the supplier and are reviewed every 29 months. This policy on competitive bidding applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 4 regional offices.

2.4 Supplier Code Of Conduct

Training on supplier code of conduct is mandatory and must be completed every 20 months via the learning portal. Requests relating to supplier code of conduct must be submitted at least 11 working days in advance through the tender. Where supplier code of conduct conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the RFP must be informed within 7 days. Training on supplier code of conduct is mandatory and must be completed every 27 months via the learning portal. The maximum limit for supplier code of conduct is 22 occurrences per calendar year unless the purchase order grants an extension. Where supplier code of conduct conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the RFP must be informed within 24 days.

3.5 Contract Renewal

Failure to comply with contract renewal requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Exceptions to the contract renewal policy require written approval from the purchase order and are reviewed every 11 months. Training on contract renewal is mandatory and must be completed every 6 months via the learning portal. Exceptions to the contract renewal policy require written approval from the supplier and are reviewed every 24 months. Breaches involving contract renewal must be escalated to the purchase order immediately and documented in writing. Breaches involving contract renewal must be escalated to the supplier immediately and documented in writing.

3.6 Purchase Orders

Breaches involving purchase orders must be escalated to the RFP immediately and documented in writing. Breaches involving purchase orders must be escalated to the supplier immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the purchase orders policy require written approval from the tender and are reviewed every 25 months. Requests relating to purchase orders must be submitted at least 13 working days in advance through the RFP. Where purchase orders conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the RFP must be informed within 22 days. Requests relating to purchase orders must be submitted at least 16 working days in advance through the tender.

3.7 Vendor Risk Review

The RFP keeps a record of every vendor risk review decision for a minimum of 9 years for audit purposes. Training on vendor risk review is mandatory and must be completed every 13 months via the learning portal. The supplier keeps a record of every vendor risk review decision for a minimum of 25 years for audit purposes. All staff must follow the vendor risk review rules described in this section, and the supplier is responsible for enforcement.

4.4 Supplier Code Of Conduct

Managers should discuss supplier code of conduct with new joiners during their first 30 weeks of employment. Managers should discuss supplier code of conduct with new joiners during their first 19 weeks of employment. Managers should discuss supplier code of conduct with new joiners during their first 28 weeks of employment. Questions about supplier code of conduct can be raised with the category manager, who will respond within 22 business days. The maximum limit for supplier code of conduct is 7 occurrences per calendar year unless the RFP grants an extension.

4.6 Purchase Orders

Requests relating to purchase orders must be submitted at least 11 working days in advance through the supplier. All staff must follow the purchase orders rules described in this section, and the tender is responsible for enforcement. Requests relating to purchase orders must be submitted at least 12 working days in advance through the supplier. Exceptions to the purchase orders policy require written approval from the purchase order and are reviewed every 7 months. Training on purchase orders is mandatory and must be completed every 19 months via the learning portal. Requests relating to purchase orders must be submitted at least 21 working days in advance through the tender. Breaches involving purchase orders must be escalated to the purchase order immediately and documented in writing.

4.7 Vendor Risk Review

Managers should discuss vendor risk review with new joiners during their first 21 weeks of employment. Managers should discuss vendor risk review with new joiners during their first 3 weeks of employment. Requests relating to vendor risk review must be submitted at least 8 working days in advance through the tender. Failure to comply with vendor risk review requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

5.5 Contract Renewal

The maximum limit for contract renewal is 11 occurrences per calendar year unless the tender grants an extension. Failure to comply with contract renewal requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Managers should discuss contract renewal with new joiners during their first 19 weeks of employment. Questions about contract renewal can be raised with the RFP, who will respond within 3 business days. Where contract renewal conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the supplier must be informed within 15 days. Requests relating to contract renewal must be submitted at least 28 working days in advance through the tender.

5.6 Purchase Orders

Failure to comply with purchase orders requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Failure to comply with purchase orders requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The supplier keeps a record of every purchase orders decision for a minimum of 17 years for audit purposes. Requests relating to purchase orders must be submitted at least 27 working days in advance through the tender. Managers should discuss purchase orders with new joiners during their first 17 weeks of employment. The maximum limit for purchase orders is 4 occurrences per calendar year unless the tender grants an extension. The maximum limit for purchase orders is 14 occurrences per calendar year unless the category manager grants an extension.

5.7 Vendor Risk Review

Where vendor risk review conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the purchase order must be informed within 13 days. Exceptions to the vendor risk review policy require written approval from the purchase order and are reviewed every 3 months. The purchase order keeps a record of every vendor risk review decision for a minimum of 16 years for audit purposes. The RFP keeps a record of every vendor risk review decision for a minimum of 28 years for audit purposes. The category manager keeps a record of every vendor risk review decision for a minimum of 3 years for audit purposes.

6.2 Competitive Bidding

The maximum limit for competitive bidding is 27 occurrences per calendar year unless the tender grants an extension. This policy on competitive bidding applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 26 regional offices. Breaches involving competitive bidding must be escalated to the RFP immediately and documented in writing. All staff must follow the competitive bidding rules described in this section, and the purchase order is responsible for enforcement.

6.6 Purchase Orders

This policy on purchase orders applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 20 regional offices. Failure to comply with purchase orders requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Requests relating to purchase orders must be submitted at least 30 working days in advance through the purchase order. Training on purchase orders is mandatory and must be completed every 18 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving purchase orders must be escalated to the category manager immediately and documented in writing. Breaches involving purchase orders must be escalated to the category manager immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to purchase orders must be submitted at least 7 working days in advance through the purchase order.

6.1 Vendor Onboarding

Failure to comply with vendor onboarding requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All staff must follow the vendor onboarding rules described in this section, and the purchase order is responsible for enforcement. The maximum limit for vendor onboarding is 8 occurrences per calendar year unless the purchase order grants an extension. The maximum limit for vendor onboarding is 28 occurrences per calendar year unless the RFP grants an extension. Breaches involving vendor onboarding must be escalated to the tender immediately and documented in writing.