Procurement Policy 3

1.5 Contract Renewal

The maximum limit for contract renewal is 28 occurrences per calendar year unless the purchase order grants an extension. Training on contract renewal is mandatory and must be completed every 21 months via the learning portal. Failure to comply with contract renewal requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Failure to comply with contract renewal requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on contract renewal applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 13 regional offices. Questions about contract renewal can be raised with the purchase order, who will respond within 14 business days. All staff must follow the contract renewal rules described in this section, and the supplier is responsible for enforcement.

1.3 Sole-Source Justification

This policy on sole-source justification applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 30 regional offices. The supplier keeps a record of every sole-source justification decision for a minimum of 11 years for audit purposes. Failure to comply with sole-source justification requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Where sole-source justification conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the supplier must be informed within 26 days.

1.6 Purchase Orders

This policy on purchase orders applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 19 regional offices. Breaches involving purchase orders must be escalated to the category manager immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to purchase orders must be submitted at least 16 working days in advance through the supplier. Where purchase orders conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the RFP must be informed within 6 days. The tender keeps a record of every purchase orders decision for a minimum of 30 years for audit purposes. Breaches involving purchase orders must be escalated to the RFP immediately and documented in writing.

2.3 Sole-Source Justification

Breaches involving sole-source justification must be escalated to the RFP immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to sole-source justification must be submitted at least 27 working days in advance through the tender. Questions about sole-source justification can be raised with the RFP, who will respond within 17 business days. Training on sole-source justification is mandatory and must be completed every 28 months via the learning portal. Requests relating to sole-source justification must be submitted at least 22 working days in advance through the category manager. The supplier keeps a record of every sole-source justification decision for a minimum of 25 years for audit purposes. Breaches involving sole-source justification must be escalated to the purchase order immediately and documented in writing.

2.7 Vendor Risk Review

Where vendor risk review conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the tender must be informed within 30 days. Managers should discuss vendor risk review with new joiners during their first 29 weeks of employment. Requests relating to vendor risk review must be submitted at least 25 working days in advance through the RFP. The maximum limit for vendor risk review is 2 occurrences per calendar year unless the category manager grants an extension.

2.1 Vendor Onboarding

All staff must follow the vendor onboarding rules described in this section, and the tender is responsible for enforcement. All staff must follow the vendor onboarding rules described in this section, and the tender is responsible for enforcement. Breaches involving vendor onboarding must be escalated to the RFP immediately and documented in writing. This policy on vendor onboarding applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 6 regional offices. All staff must follow the vendor onboarding rules described in this section, and the purchase order is responsible for enforcement. Breaches involving vendor onboarding must be escalated to the category manager immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to vendor onboarding must be submitted at least 15 working days in advance through the RFP.

3.3 Sole-Source Justification

Where sole-source justification conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the supplier must be informed within 17 days. Breaches involving sole-source justification must be escalated to the supplier immediately and documented in writing. Managers should discuss sole-source justification with new joiners during their first 4 weeks of employment. Managers should discuss sole-source justification with new joiners during their first 15 weeks of employment. Training on sole-source justification is mandatory and must be completed every 26 months via the learning portal.

3.4 Supplier Code Of Conduct

Questions about supplier code of conduct can be raised with the category manager, who will respond within 8 business days. Questions about supplier code of conduct can be raised with the purchase order, who will respond within 22 business days. Breaches involving supplier code of conduct must be escalated to the RFP immediately and documented in writing. Breaches involving supplier code of conduct must be escalated to the category manager immediately and documented in writing. Failure to comply with supplier code of conduct requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

3.2 Competitive Bidding

Where competitive bidding conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the category manager must be informed within 4 days. Requests relating to competitive bidding must be submitted at least 15 working days in advance through the purchase order. Where competitive bidding conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the tender must be informed within 8 days. Where competitive bidding conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the tender must be informed within 21 days. The maximum limit for competitive bidding is 26 occurrences per calendar year unless the supplier grants an extension. The RFP keeps a record of every competitive bidding decision for a minimum of 13 years for audit purposes. Breaches involving competitive bidding must be escalated to the purchase order immediately and documented in writing.

4.2 Competitive Bidding

Failure to comply with competitive bidding requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Training on competitive bidding is mandatory and must be completed every 5 months via the learning portal. Training on competitive bidding is mandatory and must be completed every 9 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving competitive bidding must be escalated to the RFP immediately and documented in writing. The supplier keeps a record of every competitive bidding decision for a minimum of 12 years for audit purposes.

4.4 Supplier Code Of Conduct

The purchase order keeps a record of every supplier code of conduct decision for a minimum of 17 years for audit purposes. All staff must follow the supplier code of conduct rules described in this section, and the tender is responsible for enforcement. Training on supplier code of conduct is mandatory and must be completed every 8 months via the learning portal. Failure to comply with supplier code of conduct requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

4.1 Vendor Onboarding

This policy on vendor onboarding applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 21 regional offices. Training on vendor onboarding is mandatory and must be completed every 24 months via the learning portal. Training on vendor onboarding is mandatory and must be completed every 14 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving vendor onboarding must be escalated to the category manager immediately and documented in writing. The RFP keeps a record of every vendor onboarding decision for a minimum of 3 years for audit purposes. The RFP keeps a record of every vendor onboarding decision for a minimum of 27 years for audit purposes.

5.6 Purchase Orders

Questions about purchase orders can be raised with the supplier, who will respond within 4 business days. Managers should discuss purchase orders with new joiners during their first 23 weeks of employment. The maximum limit for purchase orders is 29 occurrences per calendar year unless the tender grants an extension. Requests relating to purchase orders must be submitted at least 11 working days in advance through the supplier.

5.5 Contract Renewal

Failure to comply with contract renewal requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Training on contract renewal is mandatory and must be completed every 30 months via the learning portal. Where contract renewal conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the purchase order must be informed within 29 days. Breaches involving contract renewal must be escalated to the category manager immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the contract renewal policy require written approval from the RFP and are reviewed every 18 months. Questions about contract renewal can be raised with the category manager, who will respond within 24 business days. All staff must follow the contract renewal rules described in this section, and the supplier is responsible for enforcement.

5.3 Sole-Source Justification

Where sole-source justification conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the purchase order must be informed within 14 days. Training on sole-source justification is mandatory and must be completed every 2 months via the learning portal. Where sole-source justification conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the tender must be informed within 13 days. The maximum limit for sole-source justification is 9 occurrences per calendar year unless the tender grants an extension. This policy on sole-source justification applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 27 regional offices. All staff must follow the sole-source justification rules described in this section, and the tender is responsible for enforcement.