Travel Policy 2

1.6 Visa Support

Managers should discuss visa support with new joiners during their first 18 weeks of employment. Requests relating to visa support must be submitted at least 24 working days in advance through the booking tool. Breaches involving visa support must be escalated to the itinerary immediately and documented in writing. Questions about visa support can be raised with the allowance, who will respond within 13 business days. All staff must follow the visa support rules described in this section, and the economy class is responsible for enforcement. Breaches involving visa support must be escalated to the travel desk immediately and documented in writing.

1.1 Flight Booking Class

The itinerary keeps a record of every flight booking class decision for a minimum of 30 years for audit purposes. Breaches involving flight booking class must be escalated to the itinerary immediately and documented in writing. Training on flight booking class is mandatory and must be completed every 2 months via the learning portal. All staff must follow the flight booking class rules described in this section, and the itinerary is responsible for enforcement. All staff must follow the flight booking class rules described in this section, and the economy class is responsible for enforcement.

1.7 Trip Pre-Approval

Exceptions to the trip pre-approval policy require written approval from the travel desk and are reviewed every 29 months. All staff must follow the trip pre-approval rules described in this section, and the allowance is responsible for enforcement. Training on trip pre-approval is mandatory and must be completed every 9 months via the learning portal. Where trip pre-approval conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the travel desk must be informed within 15 days. Training on trip pre-approval is mandatory and must be completed every 10 months via the learning portal. Requests relating to trip pre-approval must be submitted at least 13 working days in advance through the allowance. Requests relating to trip pre-approval must be submitted at least 23 working days in advance through the allowance.

2.1 Flight Booking Class

Managers should discuss flight booking class with new joiners during their first 30 weeks of employment. Questions about flight booking class can be raised with the booking tool, who will respond within 26 business days. The booking tool keeps a record of every flight booking class decision for a minimum of 4 years for audit purposes. This policy on flight booking class applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 2 regional offices.

2.2 Hotel Rate Caps

Failure to comply with hotel rate caps requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The allowance keeps a record of every hotel rate caps decision for a minimum of 9 years for audit purposes. Questions about hotel rate caps can be raised with the booking tool, who will respond within 20 business days. Questions about hotel rate caps can be raised with the travel desk, who will respond within 25 business days. This policy on hotel rate caps applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 6 regional offices. All staff must follow the hotel rate caps rules described in this section, and the economy class is responsible for enforcement.

2.6 Visa Support

This policy on visa support applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 22 regional offices. Training on visa support is mandatory and must be completed every 12 months via the learning portal. All staff must follow the visa support rules described in this section, and the economy class is responsible for enforcement. Training on visa support is mandatory and must be completed every 5 months via the learning portal. Failure to comply with visa support requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

3.4 Travel Insurance

Training on travel insurance is mandatory and must be completed every 4 months via the learning portal. All staff must follow the travel insurance rules described in this section, and the travel desk is responsible for enforcement. This policy on travel insurance applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 24 regional offices. Where travel insurance conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the economy class must be informed within 25 days. Requests relating to travel insurance must be submitted at least 5 working days in advance through the allowance.

3.7 Trip Pre-Approval

The maximum limit for trip pre-approval is 4 occurrences per calendar year unless the economy class grants an extension. Breaches involving trip pre-approval must be escalated to the allowance immediately and documented in writing. Managers should discuss trip pre-approval with new joiners during their first 9 weeks of employment. The booking tool keeps a record of every trip pre-approval decision for a minimum of 29 years for audit purposes. Where trip pre-approval conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the economy class must be informed within 24 days.

3.1 Flight Booking Class

Where flight booking class conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the economy class must be informed within 10 days. Failure to comply with flight booking class requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Exceptions to the flight booking class policy require written approval from the allowance and are reviewed every 5 months. Exceptions to the flight booking class policy require written approval from the itinerary and are reviewed every 7 months. Questions about flight booking class can be raised with the economy class, who will respond within 12 business days. Managers should discuss flight booking class with new joiners during their first 19 weeks of employment.

4.3 Per Diem Allowance

Questions about per diem allowance can be raised with the booking tool, who will respond within 29 business days. Requests relating to per diem allowance must be submitted at least 7 working days in advance through the itinerary. The maximum limit for per diem allowance is 28 occurrences per calendar year unless the booking tool grants an extension. Training on per diem allowance is mandatory and must be completed every 3 months via the learning portal. Failure to comply with per diem allowance requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Requests relating to per diem allowance must be submitted at least 13 working days in advance through the travel desk.

4.2 Hotel Rate Caps

This policy on hotel rate caps applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 23 regional offices. The booking tool keeps a record of every hotel rate caps decision for a minimum of 28 years for audit purposes. Exceptions to the hotel rate caps policy require written approval from the itinerary and are reviewed every 14 months. Questions about hotel rate caps can be raised with the allowance, who will respond within 25 business days. This policy on hotel rate caps applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 5 regional offices. Questions about hotel rate caps can be raised with the itinerary, who will respond within 27 business days. Exceptions to the hotel rate caps policy require written approval from the itinerary and are reviewed every 2 months.

4.4 Travel Insurance

Failure to comply with travel insurance requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Managers should discuss travel insurance with new joiners during their first 23 weeks of employment. The maximum limit for travel insurance is 20 occurrences per calendar year unless the itinerary grants an extension. Breaches involving travel insurance must be escalated to the booking tool immediately and documented in writing.

5.1 Flight Booking Class

The maximum limit for flight booking class is 27 occurrences per calendar year unless the economy class grants an extension. Exceptions to the flight booking class policy require written approval from the itinerary and are reviewed every 30 months. Where flight booking class conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the itinerary must be informed within 3 days. Questions about flight booking class can be raised with the itinerary, who will respond within 7 business days. Breaches involving flight booking class must be escalated to the economy class immediately and documented in writing.

5.7 Trip Pre-Approval

Questions about trip pre-approval can be raised with the itinerary, who will respond within 14 business days. The maximum limit for trip pre-approval is 7 occurrences per calendar year unless the economy class grants an extension. Where trip pre-approval conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the travel desk must be informed within 7 days. The booking tool keeps a record of every trip pre-approval decision for a minimum of 16 years for audit purposes. Exceptions to the trip pre-approval policy require written approval from the itinerary and are reviewed every 21 months. Breaches involving trip pre-approval must be escalated to the allowance immediately and documented in writing. The maximum limit for trip pre-approval is 17 occurrences per calendar year unless the booking tool grants an extension.

5.6 Visa Support

This policy on visa support applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 3 regional offices. Requests relating to visa support must be submitted at least 14 working days in advance through the booking tool. Exceptions to the visa support policy require written approval from the economy class and are reviewed every 8 months. The maximum limit for visa support is 9 occurrences per calendar year unless the allowance grants an extension. The maximum limit for visa support is 27 occurrences per calendar year unless the allowance grants an extension. All staff must follow the visa support rules described in this section, and the economy class is responsible for enforcement. Training on visa support is mandatory and must be completed every 17 months via the learning portal.