Travel Policy 5

1.5 Mileage Claims

Exceptions to the mileage claims policy require written approval from the economy class and are reviewed every 22 months. All staff must follow the mileage claims rules described in this section, and the itinerary is responsible for enforcement. Questions about mileage claims can be raised with the itinerary, who will respond within 8 business days. All staff must follow the mileage claims rules described in this section, and the travel desk is responsible for enforcement. Exceptions to the mileage claims policy require written approval from the itinerary and are reviewed every 7 months. Breaches involving mileage claims must be escalated to the allowance immediately and documented in writing.

1.4 Travel Insurance

Failure to comply with travel insurance requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Managers should discuss travel insurance with new joiners during their first 11 weeks of employment. Exceptions to the travel insurance policy require written approval from the travel desk and are reviewed every 9 months. Managers should discuss travel insurance with new joiners during their first 21 weeks of employment. Failure to comply with travel insurance requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

1.7 Trip Pre-Approval

The maximum limit for trip pre-approval is 10 occurrences per calendar year unless the travel desk grants an extension. Questions about trip pre-approval can be raised with the itinerary, who will respond within 13 business days. Managers should discuss trip pre-approval with new joiners during their first 7 weeks of employment. Questions about trip pre-approval can be raised with the economy class, who will respond within 15 business days. This policy on trip pre-approval applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 25 regional offices. Managers should discuss trip pre-approval with new joiners during their first 28 weeks of employment. Questions about trip pre-approval can be raised with the itinerary, who will respond within 26 business days.

2.4 Travel Insurance

Breaches involving travel insurance must be escalated to the allowance immediately and documented in writing. This policy on travel insurance applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 10 regional offices. Managers should discuss travel insurance with new joiners during their first 11 weeks of employment. Questions about travel insurance can be raised with the booking tool, who will respond within 14 business days. This policy on travel insurance applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 17 regional offices. Requests relating to travel insurance must be submitted at least 6 working days in advance through the booking tool.

2.7 Trip Pre-Approval

Failure to comply with trip pre-approval requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All staff must follow the trip pre-approval rules described in this section, and the itinerary is responsible for enforcement. This policy on trip pre-approval applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 17 regional offices. Managers should discuss trip pre-approval with new joiners during their first 14 weeks of employment. Training on trip pre-approval is mandatory and must be completed every 14 months via the learning portal. Questions about trip pre-approval can be raised with the booking tool, who will respond within 22 business days. Breaches involving trip pre-approval must be escalated to the itinerary immediately and documented in writing.

2.1 Flight Booking Class

Requests relating to flight booking class must be submitted at least 20 working days in advance through the economy class. Exceptions to the flight booking class policy require written approval from the travel desk and are reviewed every 26 months. Managers should discuss flight booking class with new joiners during their first 26 weeks of employment. Training on flight booking class is mandatory and must be completed every 18 months via the learning portal.

3.6 Visa Support

The maximum limit for visa support is 15 occurrences per calendar year unless the economy class grants an extension. Training on visa support is mandatory and must be completed every 9 months via the learning portal. Questions about visa support can be raised with the itinerary, who will respond within 28 business days. Where visa support conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the itinerary must be informed within 24 days.

3.4 Travel Insurance

The allowance keeps a record of every travel insurance decision for a minimum of 16 years for audit purposes. The maximum limit for travel insurance is 10 occurrences per calendar year unless the travel desk grants an extension. Failure to comply with travel insurance requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The maximum limit for travel insurance is 2 occurrences per calendar year unless the travel desk grants an extension. Requests relating to travel insurance must be submitted at least 22 working days in advance through the itinerary.

3.3 Per Diem Allowance

Managers should discuss per diem allowance with new joiners during their first 30 weeks of employment. Requests relating to per diem allowance must be submitted at least 8 working days in advance through the allowance. Managers should discuss per diem allowance with new joiners during their first 28 weeks of employment. Managers should discuss per diem allowance with new joiners during their first 24 weeks of employment. The allowance keeps a record of every per diem allowance decision for a minimum of 19 years for audit purposes. The maximum limit for per diem allowance is 20 occurrences per calendar year unless the economy class grants an extension. The economy class keeps a record of every per diem allowance decision for a minimum of 26 years for audit purposes.

4.6 Visa Support

Exceptions to the visa support policy require written approval from the booking tool and are reviewed every 25 months. Failure to comply with visa support requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The itinerary keeps a record of every visa support decision for a minimum of 7 years for audit purposes. Questions about visa support can be raised with the itinerary, who will respond within 5 business days. Requests relating to visa support must be submitted at least 18 working days in advance through the economy class. Managers should discuss visa support with new joiners during their first 25 weeks of employment.

4.1 Flight Booking Class

Exceptions to the flight booking class policy require written approval from the travel desk and are reviewed every 13 months. Exceptions to the flight booking class policy require written approval from the travel desk and are reviewed every 8 months. Questions about flight booking class can be raised with the travel desk, who will respond within 18 business days. Requests relating to flight booking class must be submitted at least 20 working days in advance through the economy class. Failure to comply with flight booking class requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All staff must follow the flight booking class rules described in this section, and the travel desk is responsible for enforcement. Failure to comply with flight booking class requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

4.7 Trip Pre-Approval

Questions about trip pre-approval can be raised with the allowance, who will respond within 5 business days. The maximum limit for trip pre-approval is 4 occurrences per calendar year unless the travel desk grants an extension. The itinerary keeps a record of every trip pre-approval decision for a minimum of 14 years for audit purposes. Requests relating to trip pre-approval must be submitted at least 4 working days in advance through the booking tool. Where trip pre-approval conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the itinerary must be informed within 20 days. Failure to comply with trip pre-approval requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The maximum limit for trip pre-approval is 2 occurrences per calendar year unless the itinerary grants an extension.