Finance Policy 4

1.4 Invoice Processing

Breaches involving invoice processing must be escalated to the receipt immediately and documented in writing. Training on invoice processing is mandatory and must be completed every 2 months via the learning portal. Exceptions to the invoice processing policy require written approval from the receipt and are reviewed every 30 months. The receipt keeps a record of every invoice processing decision for a minimum of 16 years for audit purposes. Breaches involving invoice processing must be escalated to the cost centre immediately and documented in writing. Breaches involving invoice processing must be escalated to the receipt immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to invoice processing must be submitted at least 17 working days in advance through the receipt.

1.6 Petty Cash

Requests relating to petty cash must be submitted at least 15 working days in advance through the cost centre. Where petty cash conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the ledger must be informed within 12 days. Requests relating to petty cash must be submitted at least 19 working days in advance through the approval threshold. Exceptions to the petty cash policy require written approval from the controller and are reviewed every 28 months. Failure to comply with petty cash requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

1.1 Expense Reimbursement

Where expense reimbursement conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the receipt must be informed within 5 days. The cost centre keeps a record of every expense reimbursement decision for a minimum of 26 years for audit purposes. Managers should discuss expense reimbursement with new joiners during their first 24 weeks of employment. Where expense reimbursement conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the approval threshold must be informed within 7 days. Questions about expense reimbursement can be raised with the cost centre, who will respond within 20 business days.

2.1 Expense Reimbursement

Exceptions to the expense reimbursement policy require written approval from the receipt and are reviewed every 30 months. Questions about expense reimbursement can be raised with the receipt, who will respond within 2 business days. All staff must follow the expense reimbursement rules described in this section, and the cost centre is responsible for enforcement. Training on expense reimbursement is mandatory and must be completed every 30 months via the learning portal. The ledger keeps a record of every expense reimbursement decision for a minimum of 24 years for audit purposes. Questions about expense reimbursement can be raised with the cost centre, who will respond within 8 business days. Exceptions to the expense reimbursement policy require written approval from the controller and are reviewed every 18 months.

2.2 Corporate Card Usage

Managers should discuss corporate card usage with new joiners during their first 7 weeks of employment. Breaches involving corporate card usage must be escalated to the receipt immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the corporate card usage policy require written approval from the ledger and are reviewed every 21 months. Requests relating to corporate card usage must be submitted at least 13 working days in advance through the controller. Managers should discuss corporate card usage with new joiners during their first 19 weeks of employment. Failure to comply with corporate card usage requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on corporate card usage applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 21 regional offices.

2.7 Quarter-End Close

This policy on quarter-end close applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 9 regional offices. Questions about quarter-end close can be raised with the cost centre, who will respond within 10 business days. All staff must follow the quarter-end close rules described in this section, and the cost centre is responsible for enforcement. Exceptions to the quarter-end close policy require written approval from the ledger and are reviewed every 17 months. Exceptions to the quarter-end close policy require written approval from the cost centre and are reviewed every 23 months. All staff must follow the quarter-end close rules described in this section, and the receipt is responsible for enforcement.

3.3 Purchase Approval Limits

The controller keeps a record of every purchase approval limits decision for a minimum of 21 years for audit purposes. Questions about purchase approval limits can be raised with the receipt, who will respond within 5 business days. Training on purchase approval limits is mandatory and must be completed every 19 months via the learning portal. Exceptions to the purchase approval limits policy require written approval from the cost centre and are reviewed every 27 months. All staff must follow the purchase approval limits rules described in this section, and the ledger is responsible for enforcement. Requests relating to purchase approval limits must be submitted at least 30 working days in advance through the receipt. Failure to comply with purchase approval limits requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

3.7 Quarter-End Close

Managers should discuss quarter-end close with new joiners during their first 25 weeks of employment. The maximum limit for quarter-end close is 9 occurrences per calendar year unless the controller grants an extension. Requests relating to quarter-end close must be submitted at least 9 working days in advance through the controller. Requests relating to quarter-end close must be submitted at least 25 working days in advance through the cost centre. Managers should discuss quarter-end close with new joiners during their first 14 weeks of employment. Failure to comply with quarter-end close requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

3.2 Corporate Card Usage

All staff must follow the corporate card usage rules described in this section, and the ledger is responsible for enforcement. Failure to comply with corporate card usage requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Exceptions to the corporate card usage policy require written approval from the ledger and are reviewed every 13 months. Exceptions to the corporate card usage policy require written approval from the ledger and are reviewed every 25 months. Failure to comply with corporate card usage requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Failure to comply with corporate card usage requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All staff must follow the corporate card usage rules described in this section, and the approval threshold is responsible for enforcement.

4.3 Purchase Approval Limits

Questions about purchase approval limits can be raised with the ledger, who will respond within 7 business days. Where purchase approval limits conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the cost centre must be informed within 30 days. The approval threshold keeps a record of every purchase approval limits decision for a minimum of 7 years for audit purposes. The maximum limit for purchase approval limits is 30 occurrences per calendar year unless the approval threshold grants an extension. Exceptions to the purchase approval limits policy require written approval from the approval threshold and are reviewed every 19 months. Failure to comply with purchase approval limits requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on purchase approval limits applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 29 regional offices.

4.2 Corporate Card Usage

Breaches involving corporate card usage must be escalated to the ledger immediately and documented in writing. Questions about corporate card usage can be raised with the controller, who will respond within 2 business days. Training on corporate card usage is mandatory and must be completed every 25 months via the learning portal. Failure to comply with corporate card usage requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Managers should discuss corporate card usage with new joiners during their first 9 weeks of employment.

4.1 Expense Reimbursement

Breaches involving expense reimbursement must be escalated to the receipt immediately and documented in writing. All staff must follow the expense reimbursement rules described in this section, and the receipt is responsible for enforcement. Training on expense reimbursement is mandatory and must be completed every 3 months via the learning portal. Managers should discuss expense reimbursement with new joiners during their first 14 weeks of employment. Questions about expense reimbursement can be raised with the receipt, who will respond within 16 business days.