Finance Policy 5

1.1 Expense Reimbursement

The approval threshold keeps a record of every expense reimbursement decision for a minimum of 18 years for audit purposes. Questions about expense reimbursement can be raised with the cost centre, who will respond within 19 business days. Failure to comply with expense reimbursement requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The maximum limit for expense reimbursement is 20 occurrences per calendar year unless the approval threshold grants an extension.

1.2 Corporate Card Usage

Requests relating to corporate card usage must be submitted at least 6 working days in advance through the approval threshold. Training on corporate card usage is mandatory and must be completed every 6 months via the learning portal. The approval threshold keeps a record of every corporate card usage decision for a minimum of 29 years for audit purposes. Failure to comply with corporate card usage requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The cost centre keeps a record of every corporate card usage decision for a minimum of 29 years for audit purposes.

1.4 Invoice Processing

Training on invoice processing is mandatory and must be completed every 21 months via the learning portal. The approval threshold keeps a record of every invoice processing decision for a minimum of 30 years for audit purposes. Questions about invoice processing can be raised with the receipt, who will respond within 15 business days. The maximum limit for invoice processing is 29 occurrences per calendar year unless the receipt grants an extension.

2.3 Purchase Approval Limits

Requests relating to purchase approval limits must be submitted at least 16 working days in advance through the approval threshold. Questions about purchase approval limits can be raised with the controller, who will respond within 18 business days. All staff must follow the purchase approval limits rules described in this section, and the cost centre is responsible for enforcement. The ledger keeps a record of every purchase approval limits decision for a minimum of 19 years for audit purposes. Questions about purchase approval limits can be raised with the controller, who will respond within 2 business days. Managers should discuss purchase approval limits with new joiners during their first 12 weeks of employment.

2.4 Invoice Processing

Breaches involving invoice processing must be escalated to the receipt immediately and documented in writing. Failure to comply with invoice processing requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Failure to comply with invoice processing requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Where invoice processing conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the controller must be informed within 4 days.

2.6 Petty Cash

All staff must follow the petty cash rules described in this section, and the ledger is responsible for enforcement. All staff must follow the petty cash rules described in this section, and the approval threshold is responsible for enforcement. The maximum limit for petty cash is 28 occurrences per calendar year unless the controller grants an extension. The cost centre keeps a record of every petty cash decision for a minimum of 5 years for audit purposes.

3.4 Invoice Processing

Where invoice processing conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the approval threshold must be informed within 27 days. Failure to comply with invoice processing requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Breaches involving invoice processing must be escalated to the approval threshold immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to invoice processing must be submitted at least 20 working days in advance through the ledger.

3.2 Corporate Card Usage

Requests relating to corporate card usage must be submitted at least 3 working days in advance through the receipt. Managers should discuss corporate card usage with new joiners during their first 30 weeks of employment. Training on corporate card usage is mandatory and must be completed every 27 months via the learning portal. Exceptions to the corporate card usage policy require written approval from the receipt and are reviewed every 27 months.

3.3 Purchase Approval Limits

All staff must follow the purchase approval limits rules described in this section, and the controller is responsible for enforcement. The maximum limit for purchase approval limits is 4 occurrences per calendar year unless the ledger grants an extension. Requests relating to purchase approval limits must be submitted at least 19 working days in advance through the receipt. All staff must follow the purchase approval limits rules described in this section, and the controller is responsible for enforcement. Managers should discuss purchase approval limits with new joiners during their first 5 weeks of employment. Breaches involving purchase approval limits must be escalated to the ledger immediately and documented in writing. Breaches involving purchase approval limits must be escalated to the approval threshold immediately and documented in writing.

4.4 Invoice Processing

Breaches involving invoice processing must be escalated to the approval threshold immediately and documented in writing. Where invoice processing conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the receipt must be informed within 16 days. This policy on invoice processing applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 20 regional offices. Failure to comply with invoice processing requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All staff must follow the invoice processing rules described in this section, and the approval threshold is responsible for enforcement. Requests relating to invoice processing must be submitted at least 27 working days in advance through the approval threshold. Failure to comply with invoice processing requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

4.7 Quarter-End Close

Where quarter-end close conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the ledger must be informed within 17 days. Training on quarter-end close is mandatory and must be completed every 16 months via the learning portal. Exceptions to the quarter-end close policy require written approval from the cost centre and are reviewed every 6 months. All staff must follow the quarter-end close rules described in this section, and the receipt is responsible for enforcement. The approval threshold keeps a record of every quarter-end close decision for a minimum of 15 years for audit purposes. This policy on quarter-end close applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 11 regional offices.

4.6 Petty Cash

Exceptions to the petty cash policy require written approval from the ledger and are reviewed every 11 months. Breaches involving petty cash must be escalated to the controller immediately and documented in writing. Where petty cash conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the receipt must be informed within 18 days. Breaches involving petty cash must be escalated to the cost centre immediately and documented in writing. Failure to comply with petty cash requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.