Health Safety Policy 2

1.6 Workplace Injury Reporting

Training on workplace injury reporting is mandatory and must be completed every 17 months via the learning portal. Requests relating to workplace injury reporting must be submitted at least 14 working days in advance through the assembly point. Requests relating to workplace injury reporting must be submitted at least 5 working days in advance through the fire warden. Where workplace injury reporting conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the PPE must be informed within 30 days. The assembly point keeps a record of every workplace injury reporting decision for a minimum of 14 years for audit purposes. Exceptions to the workplace injury reporting policy require written approval from the assembly point and are reviewed every 4 months. This policy on workplace injury reporting applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 2 regional offices.

1.3 Ergonomic Assessment

Questions about ergonomic assessment can be raised with the PPE, who will respond within 25 business days. Failure to comply with ergonomic assessment requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Breaches involving ergonomic assessment must be escalated to the risk assessment immediately and documented in writing. Failure to comply with ergonomic assessment requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Requests relating to ergonomic assessment must be submitted at least 26 working days in advance through the assembly point.

1.1 Fire Evacuation

Breaches involving fire evacuation must be escalated to the risk assessment immediately and documented in writing. Managers should discuss fire evacuation with new joiners during their first 27 weeks of employment. Exceptions to the fire evacuation policy require written approval from the assembly point and are reviewed every 10 months. The maximum limit for fire evacuation is 9 occurrences per calendar year unless the fire warden grants an extension.

2.5 Lone Working

Training on lone working is mandatory and must be completed every 29 months via the learning portal. The maximum limit for lone working is 8 occurrences per calendar year unless the PPE grants an extension. This policy on lone working applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 18 regional offices. Failure to comply with lone working requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. The maximum limit for lone working is 27 occurrences per calendar year unless the fire warden grants an extension. Failure to comply with lone working requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

2.7 Heat Stress

Failure to comply with heat stress requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Breaches involving heat stress must be escalated to the fire warden immediately and documented in writing. All staff must follow the heat stress rules described in this section, and the PPE is responsible for enforcement. Exceptions to the heat stress policy require written approval from the risk assessment and are reviewed every 29 months.

2.6 Workplace Injury Reporting

Where workplace injury reporting conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the incident log must be informed within 23 days. Exceptions to the workplace injury reporting policy require written approval from the risk assessment and are reviewed every 26 months. Requests relating to workplace injury reporting must be submitted at least 20 working days in advance through the fire warden. Requests relating to workplace injury reporting must be submitted at least 10 working days in advance through the fire warden. Failure to comply with workplace injury reporting requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Managers should discuss workplace injury reporting with new joiners during their first 11 weeks of employment. The maximum limit for workplace injury reporting is 26 occurrences per calendar year unless the incident log grants an extension.

3.4 Hazardous Materials

The maximum limit for hazardous materials is 19 occurrences per calendar year unless the incident log grants an extension. Breaches involving hazardous materials must be escalated to the assembly point immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to hazardous materials must be submitted at least 4 working days in advance through the PPE. This policy on hazardous materials applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 27 regional offices.

3.7 Heat Stress

This policy on heat stress applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 14 regional offices. Breaches involving heat stress must be escalated to the fire warden immediately and documented in writing. Training on heat stress is mandatory and must be completed every 25 months via the learning portal. Failure to comply with heat stress requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Requests relating to heat stress must be submitted at least 5 working days in advance through the risk assessment.

3.6 Workplace Injury Reporting

Breaches involving workplace injury reporting must be escalated to the incident log immediately and documented in writing. The assembly point keeps a record of every workplace injury reporting decision for a minimum of 5 years for audit purposes. All staff must follow the workplace injury reporting rules described in this section, and the assembly point is responsible for enforcement. All staff must follow the workplace injury reporting rules described in this section, and the assembly point is responsible for enforcement. Where workplace injury reporting conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the incident log must be informed within 18 days. Training on workplace injury reporting is mandatory and must be completed every 7 months via the learning portal. Where workplace injury reporting conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the assembly point must be informed within 25 days.