Hr Policy 5

1.6 Grievance Procedure

Managers should discuss grievance procedure with new joiners during their first 30 weeks of employment. The maximum limit for grievance procedure is 29 occurrences per calendar year unless the contract grants an extension. The HR business partner keeps a record of every grievance procedure decision for a minimum of 13 years for audit purposes. All staff must follow the grievance procedure rules described in this section, and the HR business partner is responsible for enforcement. This policy on grievance procedure applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 6 regional offices. Training on grievance procedure is mandatory and must be completed every 16 months via the learning portal.

1.7 Overtime Compensation

This policy on overtime compensation applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 27 regional offices. Breaches involving overtime compensation must be escalated to the payroll immediately and documented in writing. Where overtime compensation conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the payroll must be informed within 26 days. Failure to comply with overtime compensation requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. All staff must follow the overtime compensation rules described in this section, and the contract is responsible for enforcement.

1.5 Remote Work Eligibility

Training on remote work eligibility is mandatory and must be completed every 18 months via the learning portal. This policy on remote work eligibility applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 8 regional offices. Requests relating to remote work eligibility must be submitted at least 19 working days in advance through the contract. The contract keeps a record of every remote work eligibility decision for a minimum of 12 years for audit purposes. The maximum limit for remote work eligibility is 2 occurrences per calendar year unless the line manager grants an extension. All staff must follow the remote work eligibility rules described in this section, and the contract is responsible for enforcement. The line manager keeps a record of every remote work eligibility decision for a minimum of 28 years for audit purposes.

2.7 Overtime Compensation

Training on overtime compensation is mandatory and must be completed every 28 months via the learning portal. Where overtime compensation conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the HR business partner must be informed within 22 days. This policy on overtime compensation applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 5 regional offices. All staff must follow the overtime compensation rules described in this section, and the employee is responsible for enforcement.

2.3 Performance Reviews

Breaches involving performance reviews must be escalated to the employee immediately and documented in writing. Where performance reviews conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the line manager must be informed within 27 days. Training on performance reviews is mandatory and must be completed every 20 months via the learning portal. Training on performance reviews is mandatory and must be completed every 29 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving performance reviews must be escalated to the line manager immediately and documented in writing. The HR business partner keeps a record of every performance reviews decision for a minimum of 23 years for audit purposes.

2.4 Probation Period

Training on probation period is mandatory and must be completed every 18 months via the learning portal. Training on probation period is mandatory and must be completed every 5 months via the learning portal. Where probation period conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the contract must be informed within 20 days. Failure to comply with probation period requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Requests relating to probation period must be submitted at least 24 working days in advance through the line manager.

3.4 Probation Period

All staff must follow the probation period rules described in this section, and the payroll is responsible for enforcement. Exceptions to the probation period policy require written approval from the payroll and are reviewed every 8 months. Questions about probation period can be raised with the employee, who will respond within 13 business days. The maximum limit for probation period is 14 occurrences per calendar year unless the contract grants an extension.

3.7 Overtime Compensation

The contract keeps a record of every overtime compensation decision for a minimum of 17 years for audit purposes. The maximum limit for overtime compensation is 16 occurrences per calendar year unless the payroll grants an extension. Training on overtime compensation is mandatory and must be completed every 25 months via the learning portal. Managers should discuss overtime compensation with new joiners during their first 6 weeks of employment. This policy on overtime compensation applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 17 regional offices. Training on overtime compensation is mandatory and must be completed every 6 months via the learning portal. Training on overtime compensation is mandatory and must be completed every 29 months via the learning portal.

3.1 Annual Leave

Training on annual leave is mandatory and must be completed every 16 months via the learning portal. Questions about annual leave can be raised with the employee, who will respond within 25 business days. Exceptions to the annual leave policy require written approval from the contract and are reviewed every 13 months. Requests relating to annual leave must be submitted at least 29 working days in advance through the contract.