Travel Policy 1

1.6 Visa Support

Where visa support conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the allowance must be informed within 20 days. Requests relating to visa support must be submitted at least 18 working days in advance through the economy class. Failure to comply with visa support requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Training on visa support is mandatory and must be completed every 11 months via the learning portal. Questions about visa support can be raised with the itinerary, who will respond within 3 business days. Questions about visa support can be raised with the economy class, who will respond within 15 business days. The maximum limit for visa support is 17 occurrences per calendar year unless the itinerary grants an extension.

1.1 Flight Booking Class

Requests relating to flight booking class must be submitted at least 12 working days in advance through the itinerary. Breaches involving flight booking class must be escalated to the travel desk immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the flight booking class policy require written approval from the booking tool and are reviewed every 21 months. The maximum limit for flight booking class is 19 occurrences per calendar year unless the allowance grants an extension. Training on flight booking class is mandatory and must be completed every 14 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving flight booking class must be escalated to the allowance immediately and documented in writing. Questions about flight booking class can be raised with the allowance, who will respond within 21 business days.

1.4 Travel Insurance

Requests relating to travel insurance must be submitted at least 29 working days in advance through the itinerary. The maximum limit for travel insurance is 25 occurrences per calendar year unless the allowance grants an extension. Failure to comply with travel insurance requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Failure to comply with travel insurance requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Questions about travel insurance can be raised with the economy class, who will respond within 15 business days. Training on travel insurance is mandatory and must be completed every 12 months via the learning portal. Managers should discuss travel insurance with new joiners during their first 23 weeks of employment.

2.3 Per Diem Allowance

Requests relating to per diem allowance must be submitted at least 28 working days in advance through the itinerary. Requests relating to per diem allowance must be submitted at least 15 working days in advance through the itinerary. Requests relating to per diem allowance must be submitted at least 27 working days in advance through the booking tool. Exceptions to the per diem allowance policy require written approval from the allowance and are reviewed every 3 months. Breaches involving per diem allowance must be escalated to the allowance immediately and documented in writing. Where per diem allowance conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the itinerary must be informed within 15 days. Where per diem allowance conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the economy class must be informed within 29 days.

2.7 Trip Pre-Approval

The allowance keeps a record of every trip pre-approval decision for a minimum of 11 years for audit purposes. Where trip pre-approval conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the itinerary must be informed within 20 days. This policy on trip pre-approval applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 6 regional offices. The maximum limit for trip pre-approval is 9 occurrences per calendar year unless the economy class grants an extension.

2.2 Hotel Rate Caps

Where hotel rate caps conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the allowance must be informed within 13 days. Requests relating to hotel rate caps must be submitted at least 20 working days in advance through the booking tool. Failure to comply with hotel rate caps requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on hotel rate caps applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 21 regional offices.

3.6 Visa Support

Breaches involving visa support must be escalated to the booking tool immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the visa support policy require written approval from the booking tool and are reviewed every 24 months. The booking tool keeps a record of every visa support decision for a minimum of 13 years for audit purposes. All staff must follow the visa support rules described in this section, and the travel desk is responsible for enforcement.

3.7 Trip Pre-Approval

Breaches involving trip pre-approval must be escalated to the economy class immediately and documented in writing. Exceptions to the trip pre-approval policy require written approval from the itinerary and are reviewed every 4 months. Training on trip pre-approval is mandatory and must be completed every 8 months via the learning portal. Managers should discuss trip pre-approval with new joiners during their first 16 weeks of employment. Where trip pre-approval conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the travel desk must be informed within 13 days.

3.5 Mileage Claims

Training on mileage claims is mandatory and must be completed every 26 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving mileage claims must be escalated to the allowance immediately and documented in writing. All staff must follow the mileage claims rules described in this section, and the travel desk is responsible for enforcement. Breaches involving mileage claims must be escalated to the itinerary immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to mileage claims must be submitted at least 16 working days in advance through the booking tool. The maximum limit for mileage claims is 17 occurrences per calendar year unless the economy class grants an extension.