Travel Policy 3

1.2 Hotel Rate Caps

This policy on hotel rate caps applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 27 regional offices. Questions about hotel rate caps can be raised with the travel desk, who will respond within 2 business days. Training on hotel rate caps is mandatory and must be completed every 13 months via the learning portal. Training on hotel rate caps is mandatory and must be completed every 10 months via the learning portal. All staff must follow the hotel rate caps rules described in this section, and the economy class is responsible for enforcement. Questions about hotel rate caps can be raised with the allowance, who will respond within 11 business days.

1.4 Travel Insurance

Failure to comply with travel insurance requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. This policy on travel insurance applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 12 regional offices. Training on travel insurance is mandatory and must be completed every 10 months via the learning portal. Breaches involving travel insurance must be escalated to the allowance immediately and documented in writing. Requests relating to travel insurance must be submitted at least 6 working days in advance through the allowance. Questions about travel insurance can be raised with the booking tool, who will respond within 28 business days. The allowance keeps a record of every travel insurance decision for a minimum of 13 years for audit purposes.

1.7 Trip Pre-Approval

All staff must follow the trip pre-approval rules described in this section, and the allowance is responsible for enforcement. Training on trip pre-approval is mandatory and must be completed every 30 months via the learning portal. All staff must follow the trip pre-approval rules described in this section, and the allowance is responsible for enforcement. Where trip pre-approval conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the allowance must be informed within 9 days. Where trip pre-approval conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the itinerary must be informed within 23 days. This policy on trip pre-approval applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 8 regional offices. This policy on trip pre-approval applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 26 regional offices.

2.5 Mileage Claims

Where mileage claims conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the economy class must be informed within 22 days. Where mileage claims conflicts with local law, local law prevails and the itinerary must be informed within 5 days. This policy on mileage claims applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 3 regional offices. Exceptions to the mileage claims policy require written approval from the travel desk and are reviewed every 29 months. All staff must follow the mileage claims rules described in this section, and the travel desk is responsible for enforcement. Questions about mileage claims can be raised with the travel desk, who will respond within 5 business days.

2.2 Hotel Rate Caps

Breaches involving hotel rate caps must be escalated to the economy class immediately and documented in writing. Questions about hotel rate caps can be raised with the allowance, who will respond within 21 business days. Training on hotel rate caps is mandatory and must be completed every 10 months via the learning portal. All staff must follow the hotel rate caps rules described in this section, and the booking tool is responsible for enforcement.

2.7 Trip Pre-Approval

All staff must follow the trip pre-approval rules described in this section, and the travel desk is responsible for enforcement. Questions about trip pre-approval can be raised with the itinerary, who will respond within 16 business days. The maximum limit for trip pre-approval is 13 occurrences per calendar year unless the itinerary grants an extension. This policy on trip pre-approval applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 28 regional offices.

3.3 Per Diem Allowance

This policy on per diem allowance applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 25 regional offices. Requests relating to per diem allowance must be submitted at least 4 working days in advance through the booking tool. Failure to comply with per diem allowance requirements may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Requests relating to per diem allowance must be submitted at least 19 working days in advance through the travel desk. Managers should discuss per diem allowance with new joiners during their first 8 weeks of employment. This policy on per diem allowance applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 20 regional offices.

3.6 Visa Support

This policy on visa support applies to permanent employees, contractors and interns in all 15 regional offices. Training on visa support is mandatory and must be completed every 26 months via the learning portal. The maximum limit for visa support is 13 occurrences per calendar year unless the allowance grants an extension. The maximum limit for visa support is 24 occurrences per calendar year unless the economy class grants an extension. The maximum limit for visa support is 30 occurrences per calendar year unless the economy class grants an extension.

3.1 Flight Booking Class

Exceptions to the flight booking class policy require written approval from the travel desk and are reviewed every 19 months. Managers should discuss flight booking class with new joiners during their first 12 weeks of employment. The maximum limit for flight booking class is 19 occurrences per calendar year unless the travel desk grants an extension. Breaches involving flight booking class must be escalated to the economy class immediately and documented in writing.